7:00pm

Johann Soultz will play cello at this introspective service.

MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 21

Yom Kippur Family Service

9:00am to 10:00am

This service, filled with music, story, and prayer, is geared towards families with children that are readers and older, but open to all.

Yom Kippur Morning Service

10:45am to 1:00pm

Goats, Giggles and New Beginnings: A Yom Kippur Family Experience

2:00pm to 3:00pm

Join us as we explore forgiveness in age-appropriate ways and a beautiful Torah story, while visiting with two miniature goats. Leave with one concrete way to make the new year kinder. Appropriate for families with children 10 years and under, but all are invited

Finding Your Inner Whale:

Reflections on Jonah's Journey

2:30pm to 3:45pm

The book of Jonah is far more than a story of a reluctant prophet. It is a timeless exploration of the themes of courage, forgiveness, compassion and personal transformation. Jonah's journey invites us to consider the moments in our own lives when we have resisted change, were challenged by difficult truths or discovered unexpected opportunities for growth. We invite you to join us on Yom Kippur afternoon when we will explore the themes of Jonah's story, and through meaningful conversation and connection we might open ourselves to the possibility of positive change in the New Year. This discussion will be led by Lynne Rothstein and Bruce Goss.

Yizkor service

4:00pm to 5:30pm

At this service we will honor the memory of our loved ones and have the opportunity to place stones as an act of remembrance.

Neilah Service

5:30pm to 6:45pm

During this candle-lit closing service, people will have the opportunity to stand before the ark in private prayer.

Havdallah / Shofar Service

6:45pm

Close out the Days of Awe and hear the final blast of the shofar.

BreakFast

Begins after the conclusion of the service.
